BOOTCAMPS 2024

COMMUNITY COLLEGE IN FRANCE

Get ready for a two-week culturally immersive experience in France! Spend the summer abroad, broaden your intellectual horizon and improve your transversal skills.

The Bootcamps will look at sustainability issues from a multidisciplinary perspective and add an extra dimension to your degree.

You will learn through a varied mix of lectures, activities and cultural activities, and field trips. You will take part in group work and discussions with academic staff, local actors, and fellow students.

Choose one of the five Bootcamps offered next summer:

- ❖ "Some Like it Sustainable" at Université Montpellier (June 2 - June 15)
- ❖ "Sustainable Engineering" at Ecole Supérieure des Technologies Industrielles Avancées in Bidart (June 10 - June 23)
- ❖ "Go Green" at Université de Pau et des Pays de l'Adour (June 16 - June 29)
- ❖ "Science for a Sustainable Development: from Conservation of Natural Heritage to Future Society" at Université de Lille (June 30 - July 13)
- ❖ "Beyond the Postcard: Nature, Culture and Sustainability in the French Caribbean" at Université des Antilles (July 1 - July 14)

!/\ You will need a Passport to travel to France

"This trip totally exceeded my expectations. It was truly the most eye-opening experience I have ever had and has inspired me to go see more of the world (...) Not only did I learn so much while being there, but I gained memories and experiences that I will cherish for a lifetime."

Quintessa Hammond
Columbus State Community College,
2023

PROGRAM COST

The program cost amounts to $2,400. It includes: accommodation, meals, visits and activities, airport pick-up and drop-off, and local public transportation. Plane tickets to and from France are not included.

The French Embassy offers $1,400 scholarships to lower the participation cost to $1,000.

Traveling and experiencing life in another country isn't just hugely exciting - it can help you gain extra skills, such as intercultural awareness and adaptability, and boost your confidence!
