Q3: If your international office works with the study abroad office, what are the areas of collaboration?

- I am the study abroad office! We call it Education Abroad. I have a part time faculty person that manages the Education Abroad offerings.
- I think our Study Abroad Office and International Student office is the same and has only one staff.
- Our international office handles the study abroad matters. Our on-campus committee assists with the study abroad inquiries as well.
- Our office has a campus study abroad advisor/contact as our study abroad office resides at our sister campus.
- Program promotion (2)
- Student events, celebrations, student interactions, etc.
- Students ask the DSO for info about opportunities. No office, so share about the single class we offer!
- The international office is the one that handles the study abroad programs.
- They give us a list of which F-1 and J-1 students are studying abroad.
- We are part of the same office.
